SHORT CUTS

Every meal when the baby is being fed, try using a paper
well as a bib.
This is easily accomplished by using two ordinary paper clamps and together with a piece of string ribbon about eight inches long,
single paper towel is then torn and clamped under baby's chin.
The resulting bib is a highly economical, thoroughly sanitary, easily removable food catcher which costs
a fraction of the cost of laundering
an ordinary bib.

Just Let Us Know!

This is an invitation from the Daly City Record to any local man in Uncle Sam's armed forces, or his "home folks" to let us know of promotions and activities that would be of interest to Daly City readers.
We are always happy to publish such news. Since only a few of the training camps and officers' schools have public relations officers, we do not hear directly of many such promotions unless the men or their families themselves tell us.

When "Johnny" or "Joe" becomes corporal or goes off to officers' training school, let us know. Phone RANDOLPH 3215.
That's NEWS to Daly City. In addition, our long-ago offer to still holds. Just let us know

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKinn

MOST city folks think every once in a while, "Wouldn't it be nice to go out and live in the woods away from everything?" But there are not so many who do anything about it. Two who did are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rich, who have lived up in the forests of Maine far from civilization for some nine years—and like it. What life is like there—both hardships and pleasures—is told in "We Took to the Woods," by Louise Dickinson Rich, one of the December Book-of-the-Month Club selections.

MRS. RALPH RICH

One of the minor problems connected with living in the wilderness is getting sufficient store of food in to last them between treks to Rumford, the nearest village. In the summer they make the journey about once a week, but in the wintertime, they're lucky if they get through once a month. Just try to make out a list of groceries for a month, says Mrs. Rich. It's not as easy as you think. At first, she says, she always forgot staples—such as sugar, flour and tea—going on the assumption that one always has sugar, flour and tea. "It didn't take me long," she writes, "to learn this little fact of life—one doesn't."

The village grocer is very obliging, she says, but Rumford is no Babylon, rich in exotic viands. Once, in her ignorance she ordered artichokes and got back a little note saying, "I heard of these, but I never see one."

The real excitement of deer-hunting, the author tells us, isn't hunting deer. It's hunting hunters. A city hunter may think he's having a unique experience when he gets lost but to the Riches, it's just the same old story. They hear in the distance the three shots of a gun, the universal woods signal of distress, and then they know they've got to interrupt their dinner or whatever they are doing and start a search. It wouldn't be so bad, if the hunter would build a fire and then stay put. But he never does. "They all do the same thing. They start travelling as fast as they can, usually in the wrong direction and always in circles."

The Riches have a telephone—an extension of that belonging to the nearby lumber camp. For convenience the lumber camp has phones attached to trees in several different parts of their preserves. When a wandering fisherman comes along and sees a telephone on a tree he never can resist it. He picks it up and rings once—the Riches' signal. They've got to recognize these quavering rings now, and when they hear them, they just pick up their phone and say, "Grand Central Station. Information Booth," and hang up.

One evening Frank, the lumbercamp cook, who was courting a young lady living a considerable distance away, came knocking at Mrs. Rich's door. "You got a flat-iron?" he asked. "Can I borrow it? I got to press my pants." Mrs. Rich pointed out that his young lady lived too far for him to get there and back all in one evening. "Oh, I wasn't planning on that," was Frank's answer. "I'm just going to call her up. An' I ain't going to talk to no girl on the telephone with pants looking like I'd slept in 'em."

ABBOTT AND COSTELLO STAR IN FILM, "PARDON MY SARONG" AT DALY CITY

Abbott and Costello in their brief but spectacular career have portrayed detectives, cowboys, sailors, soldiers, mechanics, and carnival spielers.

In their newest Universal comedy "Pardon My Sarong" which is currently playing at the Daly City theatre, they appear as bus drivers who later become castaways on an uncharted south sea island.

The new vehicle takes the famous comedians halfway around the globe in a combination chase, treasure hunt and encounter with a tribe of south seas dancing beauties.

Virginia Bruce has the leading feminine role and the very imposing cast includes Robert Paige and Lief Erikson. Other notables in the line-up are Lionel Atwill, Nan Wynn and Samuel S. Hinds.

Entertaining novelties are promised by the appearance of Tip, Tap and Toe, dancers, the Saronga Dancing Girls and The Four Ink Spots of radio, stage and juke-box fame.

Many new numbers are listed in the musical score which was supervised by Charles Previn. Selections include "Island of the Moon", "Lovely Luana", "Vingo Jingo", "Do I Worry", "Java Jive" and "Shout, Brother, Shout". The last three numbers are presented by The Four Ink Spots.

Current Attraction

Nan Wynn, exotic Hollywood glamour girl, has one of the important feminine roles with Abbott and Costello in Universal's "Pardon My Sarong", currently playing at the Daly City theatre.

AVOID WASTE ON THE LITTLE THINGS... SPEND FOR THE BIG THINGS. WAR SAVINGS BONDS

Our fighting men are doing their share. Here at home the least we can do is put 10% of our income in War Bonds for our share in America.

MEATLESS DISH FOR SUPPER on a Cold Night

Dorothy Greig

THIS is the dish to cheer the soul of any woman on the watch for foods that are nourishing, economical—and easy to put together. It calls for eggs—which belong in the same category as meat in type of nutriment. It includes condensed pepper pot soup to give body, delicately spicy flavor and more nourishment. And as a final flourish, it is garnished with peas and onions.

Baked Pepper Pot Mold
Filled with
Peas and onions
1 can condensed pepper pot soup
1 can milk

1 tablespoon pimiento, sliced
2 cups bread, cubed
Beat the eggs slightly and to them add the pepper pot soup. Then add the milk, sliced pimiento, and bread cubes (made from bread at least one day old). Pour mixture into a greased ring mold (about 7 inches in diameter) and let stand for 15 minutes. Bake in 350° F. oven for 25 to 45 minutes or until firm. Unmold on a hot platter or chop plate. Fill the center with peas and onions and garnish with pimiento. Buttered breaded sprouts may be used for the center instead of peas and onions, if desired.

It's common sense to be thrifty. If you save you are thrifty. War Bonds help you to save and help to save America. Buy your ten per cent every pay day.

Are you entitled to wear a "target" lapel button? You are if you are investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day. It's your badge of patriotism.

Beans for "Pepper-Upper" Vitamins

Beans are important—now! They're chuck full of nutritious goodness, especially Vitamin B₁—that "pepper-upper" vitamin that acts as the vitamin miracle man, stimulating run-down appetites and quieting jangled war nerves. Beans also contain protein, perfect in combination with different vegetables as the main dish of a meal.

When served as in the menu given below, beans become family favorites—and interchangeable dependables.

BOSTON BAKED BEANS

(Patriotic too)

5 cups cooked dried beans

1½ cup finely chopped onion

1½ tsp. prepared mustard

1½ tsp. paprika

1½ cup salt

1½ cup water

2 tbsp. dark molasses

3 slices bacon

Place cooked beans in well-greased

1½ qt. casserole. Thoroughly combine onion, mustard, paprika, salt, water and molasses. Pour over beans. Strip with bacon. Bake in moderate oven

(350° F.) 1 hour and 15 minutes or until browned. Serves 6.

THIS IS IMPORTANT

UP-TO-DATE bean cookery suggests that to cook navy, lima, pink and red,

kidney or cranberry beans, you pick over beans carefully, removing any damaged beans or foreign particles.

Wash well in sieve or bowl. *Do not soak. Improved agricultural methods have made it possible to produce more tender beans with tender skins. Soaking will cut cooking time about one-third, but makes beans mushy and unattractive. Place in kettle at least 4 times greater in volume than beans.

Add hot water to cover and 1 tsp. salt for each cup beans and cover. Cook at simmering temperature until beans are tender, 2 to 3 hours. Add more water as needed to keep beans well covered during cooking.

*Limas should be soaked in water to cover 6 to 8 hours or over night as they cling to their tough outer skin.

BUILDS HEALTH!

America is truly a land of plenty. And we, on the home front, who are forging the sinews of war for our gallant lads overseas, know that the proper food is essential to health.

Include meat in your diet every day. It furnishes strength by supplying protein, iron, phosphorus, energy, and vitamins, particularly the important B group of vitamins, including thiamine, riboflavin, and niacin.

For quality meat to help you do your day's work for Uncle Sam, remember that our meat market is your health market.
